The Manamater Store. The First Day of Spring

THE astronomers may laugh at that headline, but not the women who see Spring jackets and Spring costumes blossoming on the streets this morning. The First of March is the first day of Spring in merchandise, whatever it may be in the almanac.

With Spring here, the store news gets more and more interesting. We have been talking of your anticipated wants,-they become now your demands.

Our long preparation now bears fruit. We have in the following lines the largest stocks in New York. It is for you to say whether or not they are the best. They are

We present to your attention this morning a lot of fifty tailor-made Spring Suits and Costumes that will furnish the surprise of the day. They are not to be described except by the word "Superb." The values, even when judged by similar garments in our own collection, are up to $65, with $40 as a fair average. It is a seldom-come, soon-gone chance, and, considering the season, an offer almost without parallel. You may choose from these suits at $25 each, but you must come early fittersemployed for this parto do it.

We have gone carefully over the shoe stock, and arranged it for another day's selling.

The following lines are substantially intact so far as concerns sizes and styles. Half Prices and better:

Men's Shoes at Two-and-a-Half The sort that critical men like to buy. Black and the proper shade of tan; box calf, enamel grain and russet calf; full English toe, with outside extension soles. Five doilar shoes, and rarely sold for less. In ample assortment.

Men's Shoes at Two Dollars Tan and black caliskin and patent leather high-class shoes in modern shapes; style and shapes to suit most ideas.

Women's Shoes at One-Seventy An extra the shoe in light and heavy weights, made for exclusive trade, with all the ear-marks of quality; both patent leather and kid tips in the lot.

Women's Shoes at One-Forty

A dozen sorts for your choosing, and not an unworthy one in the lot. They are $t shoes mostly, and here and there may be some that would sell at $2.50. You may find

Fresh goods com-Women's ing in every day keep the stock always bright, interesting and full of novelties. We think our showing in these goods is always a little bet- ment. Nothing just like them has ter than you will find elsewhere; but been shown before, -they are new this year we are making special in every sense of the word. efforts in the direction of originality and variety. This, combined with that will prevail for the Spring season: right prices, has the result to which we are growing accustomed. Tenth street.

All the new laces which Newest you have seen on the model dresses are now on view; and there is almost an embarrassment of new suggestions for trimming the coming season's gowns. Towe should like to have you look at the remarkable line of spangled robes we are showing.

Half Children's Dresses Prices Very Cheap and much less, on a sizable lot of Children's Dresses,-the last of several lines. There are plenty of them, more than we wish there were,-but the picking is so exceptionally good that we wait until nine o'clock, this morning, before putting them on sale, just for fairness. Then, with a fair start, the rest is for you.

Nainsook and dimity dresses, mostly, prettily embroidered and trimmed, for babies from 6 months to 2 years old. Look at the prices:

At 25c.—Three styles of nainsook dresses with pretty embroidered yokes, that were 65c. and 75c. At 50c. A number of styles in cambric and nainsook, very prettily trimmed with em-broidery, that were 85c. and $1.
